Re: Marriage of Lerman Case No.: 22FL000408

Dear presiding Judge,

I am writing to you regarding the assignment of the new Judge in my case.

I received a notice on Oct 22, 2024, stating that the Honorable Cindy Hendrickson in department 65 was assigned to my case, and that the next hearing will be on December 04, 2024.

Following this letter, I visited in person, the court room department 65, on Mon Oct 28, 2024, in the morning session of 9:00AM.

I have 2 concerns and objections with this assignment.

1. Unconstitutionality

I am surprised to see that all the judges assigned on my case are female judges. Mrs Hendrickson is the third female judge in a row assigned to this case. The probability of getting a female judge in the first assignment, is 50%. The probability of getting a female judge in both first and second assignments, is 25%. The probability of getting 3 female judges in a row is 12.5% (very unlikely). This shows that there is a deliberate intend from the justice system in Santa Clara to favor one party over the other. It is easy to figure out that the female party is favored when choosing a female judge. That is unconstitutional because of a gender preference. It would be fair to assign now, a male judge after having assigned 2 female judges in a row.

2. The Judge Hendrickson has an interest in the matter

During my visit of Mon October 28, 2024, I found, to my surprise, that the Attorney Mrs. Eva Martelle from the office Alan & Martelle LLP, was working with the Judge Hendrickson on the cases. I found that Mrs Hendrickson and Mrs Martelle, know each other, and that there is a relation of "mentoring-assisting" between them. In one hand, Judge Hendrickson mentors Mrs Martelle to become a future judge. In the other hand, Attorney Martelle assists the Judge Hendrickson in the exercise of her function, for example by redacting the orders.

I want to bring to your attention that Mrs. Martelle is representing the Plaintiff in my case. I have accused Mrs Martelle of misconduct, in particular, with charges of extortion, threatening, intimidation and other misconducts.

Under those circumstances, it is unlikely that Judge Hendrickson, would render justice in full impartiality.

In conclusion, it is requested to assign a new male judge that has no relation with the office of Mrs. Martelle.

Respectfully,
Mikhael Lerman
Defendant.
